

Distribution Schedule 2009/2010

Asian Solar provides the perfect partner for your company during the course of the year by not only ensuring your advertising is targeted into the right areas through our magazine mailing campaign, but also through our widespread conference and exhibition participation. Each issue is partnered with at least one event-based distribution, putting your message in front of an extra audience. With up to 1,000 extra copies for all major events, you can be sure Asian Solar is putting YOU in the spotlight.
